EARLY CHILDHOOD STAFF RECRUITMENT + RETENTION

While there is no easy answer to solve the early childhood workforce crisis, this session will support directors and administrators to think about the factors within their programs that support recruitment and retention. This session will provide meaningful insights and practical ideas into why turnover happens and how to reverse this trend within their programs and centers. It will also provide time to brainstorm together and learn how others are tackling the challenges of recruitment and retention.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATE +

FEATURES

ABOUT THE CDA+

The CDA+, created by Pikes Peak State College (PPSC), is a ten-session program (80 hours) that allows you to earn seven college credits.

PROGRAM DETAILS

- Joint Initiatives for Youth + Families provides in-person training on Thursdays – see sidebar at right.
- Training is assignment- and participation-based, with no testing required for successful program completion.
- CDA credential will be submitted for PLA college credits.

DETAILS

Prerequisite: Have a current Child Development Associate® (CDA) Credential™. Your current CDA credential will be submitted for college credits, eliminating the need for continual CDA renewal.

Did your CDA certificate expire?

The CDA® Renewal Amnesty Program is available through July 31, 2025. The program gives an opportunity for anyone whose CDA expired as far back as Jan. 1, 2020, to complete the renewal process and reactivate their CDA credential. To learn more about the program, visit the Council for Professional Recognition (cdacouncil.org/en/cda-renewal-amnesty-program)

FOUNDATIONS TRAINING + EVENT REFUND POLICY

Registration and payment for an event or training indicate your agreement to the policies below:

A FULL training/event refund will be provided for Foundations training under the following circumstances:

- The training participant provides a written refund request to Foundations no later than ten (10) business days prior to the first day of the training/event. Proof of registration must be provided with this request.

A refund of HALF of the cost of the training/event will be provided for Foundations training under the following circumstances:

- The training participant provides a written refund request to Foundations no later than five (5) business days prior to the first day of the training/event. Proof of registration must be provided with this request.

Please note the following regarding refunds for series training (have multiple meeting sessions):

- Due to the importance of the information covered on the first day of a course, participants who cannot attend will not be permitted to continue the course and are NOT eligible for a refund.
- To request a FULL refund for a series training, the training participant must provide a written refund request to Foundations no later than ten (10) business days prior to the first day of the training/event series. Additionally, proof of registration must be provided along with this request.
- Participants attending any portion of a series training are not eligible for refunds for subsequent sessions in the series.

Canceled Training/Events

- If a training/event is canceled or postponed by Foundations for any reason, including inclement weather, registrants will be given the options below, and the choice must be made within one week of the canceled training/event through email to Foundations.
- Cancellation of registration and full refund of the cost of the training/event.
- Application of registration payment to a future training/event within three months of the date of the canceled training/event.
- Transfer of payment to a future rescheduled training/event.

NO REFUND is provided if registrants do not show up for the scheduled training/event or cancel a registration less than five (5) business days in advance.

- All refund requests must be in writing by email only. Phone requests will not be accepted.
- EMAIL: Please email refund request to: GBrown@jointinitiatives.org

The refund will be refunded to the original credit/debit card used for the registration.

Please allow five (5) to ten (10) business days for the refund to be placed back in your account.

PARTICIPANT REMOTE LEARNING + PROFESSIONAL BEHAVIOR GUIDELINES

To support a positive, safe, and productive remote learning training environment for all in attendance, all participants are expected to follow Participant Remote Learning + Professional Behavior Guidelines. Participants who violate the Guidelines are not eligible for a refund and will be removed from the training and may be prohibited from attending future training. For a full description of the Guidelines, click HERE.
